

Concluding Thoughts

"Roads no longer merely lead to places;
they are places"

John Brinckerhoff Jackson

Undiscovered Public Knowledge

- Undiscovered public knowledge- systems of information that are similar but distinct or not normally connected
- Better connections

Suggestions

1. Make the network aware of itself:
Enable people to find each other
 2. Enable people to collaboratively create, co-create, re-create
 3. Create collaborative, cross-institutional spaces of value
 4. Honor failure, value experimentation, tolerate uncertainty

Suggestions

5. Celebrate local excellence and innovation (NMHS)
 6. Model desired change (LTAs)
 7. Let people teach each other
 8. Model democracy - speak into processes which impact us
